

Dry Cold Productions
Music Theatre done the Prairie way

Dear Supporters of Dry Cold:

A Lovely, old Fashioned Celebration of Love

" The simple show and gentle telling of The Light in the Piazza stands out from the jukebox musicals with their throbbing rock scores and the special-effects-laden extravaganzas that dominate modern Broadway. In its ninth season with a mandate to produce overlooked musicals, Dry Cold Productions has snapped up a relatively new, cult work that savours its old-fashioned virtues, with Guettel's swooning melodies and overcooked dramatic moments that soar to operatic heights. Based on the novella by American Elizabeth Spencer, The Light in the Piazza shows wide appeal in how it pits the optimism of youth against the disappointment of middle age."

– Kevin Prokosh, Winnipeg Free Press, May 15th, 2010

*Our 2010 production of The Light in the Piazza was both a huge artistic and critical success. We would like to sincerely thank you for your ongoing support which has been an integral part of helping Dry Cold Productions to flourish.*

We are happy to receive generous foundation, corporate and Arts Council support and feel that the financial and ticket-buying support of you, our theatre-going patrons, is our most valuable asset. With your help, we are able to present wonderful new pieces of the modern Music Theatre repertoire.

We are very proud of our productions and the teams we have assembled both on and off the stage to bring you the best of modern Musical Theatre. As we enter our tenth anniversary season we look forward to continuing to offer you more exciting Musical Theatre premieres, created and performed by wildly talented Manitoba artists.

We ask for your continued support as we prepare to unveil our highly anticipated tenth anniversary season which we know will prove to be the most exciting in Dry Cold history.

Stay tuned for our upcoming Dry Cold season announcement. We know that it will be a thrilling one! The next edition of the always anticipated Dry Cold newsletter will be out later this summer. In the meantime, have a look at our website - www.drycoldproductions.ca.
